Order Granting Motion to Extend Stay of Magistrate Judge's Pretrial Release Order

6 Matthew Wade Beasley,

[ECF Nos. 10, 11]

7 Defendant

8 Late in the afternoon of Friday, April 7, 2023, the magistrate judge conducted a pretrial
9 detention hearing in this matter and ordered that Defendant Matthew Wade Beasley be released
10 on pretrial-supervision conditions pending trial. The magistrate judge noted that his decision 11 was "a close call" and stayed the effect of the release order until 3 p.m. today, April 10, 2023, to 12 afford the government the opportunity to file a motion for district-court review of that order.

13 The government filed that motion for review,¹ along with an emergency motion to extend 14 the stay of the magistrate judge's release order pending the outcome of that motion for review.²
15 Having considered the government's emergency motion to stay and reviewed the government's 16 expedited motion for review of the release order and listened to recording of the April 7, 2023, 17 detention hearing, and finding good cause to extend the stay,

18 IT IS ORDERED that the government's emergency motion to extend the stay of the 19 magistrate judge's release order [ECF No. 10] is GRANTED; the stay of the release order is 20 extended until the district court issues its ruling on the government's pending motion for
